FREIGHT STEAMSHIPS

The American-Hawaiian freight steamship Alaskan, now loading sugar at Hilo, is expected to sail from that port on Sunday with close on 12,000 tons of sugar for New York. She is receiving very quick dispatch, her arrival being ready before she went to Hilo to load.

The company's new freighter, Nevada, the first of the local boats, sailed from New York for Honolulu via San Francisco on April 29. The Nevada is scheduled to sail from San Francisco for this port about the 15th of July. She will be kept on the run between San Francisco and Honolulu.

The Nebraska, also to be a local boat, is rapidly nearing completion. In New York and is expected to be ready for sea in a couple of months.

The Hawaiian sails from New York on the 20th inst. for this port via San Francisco. She will be followed by the Oregonian on June 29.

The Californian, now in this port, will leave for Kahului on or about the 15th inst. She is taking the larger portion of her sugar cargo for New York in Honolulu.

DISAPPOINTING TUGS

The tug-of-war contests last night did not arouse much enthusiasm. The All-Americans failed to put in an appearance again and a volunteer team appeared against the Lumber Yard men who pulled their opponents over in 39 1/2 seconds.

The All-American team has not seen fit to notify the people interested that they do not intend to pull any more. Their name is still on the program and they have succeeded in making many people angry at their seemingly unwarlike action. They have sent in no formal withdrawal and until they do, everyone expects them to pull.

The Portuguese team made its appearance but the places of several of the original members were filled by substitutes. Captain Machado himself did not appear. The Kani Ke Aui pulled the Portuguese over in 12 minutes and 39 seconds.

BAR ASSOCIATION

McClanahan, Enoch Johnson, A. W. Judd, E. C. Peters, W. W. Thayer, T. M. Stewart, Lorrin Andrews, C. S. Dole, R. D. Mead, Mr. Bidwell, B. L. Marx and Messrs. Holmes, Andrade, Hemenway and A. A. Wilder. J. G. Willard was admitted to membership.

A committee consisting of Messrs. McClanahan, Andrews and Judd was appointed to look up new quarters for the association. Another committee consisting of Messrs. Andrews, Judd and Wilder to look into the matter of an annual banquet which it has been the habit of the Bar Association to hold each year shortly after the annual meeting.
